Introduction

Suko : The Mighty Guardian of cryptos,
In the wild and unpredictable jungle of the cryptocurrency world, a new hero has emerged. Introducing Suko , the mighty and playful guardian of Cryptos. Standing tall and fierce, Suko embodies the strength, loyalty, resilience, and community spirit that Suko Token represents.

In the rapidly evolving world of blockchain and cryptocurrencies, the need for innovative and robust digital assets is ever-growing. Suko Token (SUKO) emerges as a revolutionary Multichain cryptocurrency designed to facilitate seamless transactions, foster community-driven growth, and offer a transparent, fair distribution model. With a fixed supply of 299 million tokens and no buy/sell fees, Suko Token is poised to become a cornerstone in the decentralized finance (DeFi) ecosystem.

Tokenomics

Suko Token's economic model is crafted to ensure maximum fairness and sustainability. Below is a detailed breakdown of its tokenomics:

Total Supply

- Total Tokens: 299,000,000 SUKO
- Token Name: Suko Token , Symbol: SUKO , Decimals: 18
- Chains: ETH, BSC

Eth-chain Token Contract :

0xdbb999FdEFFE0b4700C9956422940608EBEBCbBe

BSC-chain Token Contract:

0xc097015F5B2BcEc48c2C75cf3FcCA35ED09007f4

NOTE: SUKO is a multichain token, which is deployed in both ETH and BSC and presale also will be done in both chains at same time.

Suko tokens which are not sold in presale are sent to Dead wallet or burn.

Allocations

Presale: 70% (210,000,000 SUKO)

Tokens available for purchase during the presale phase, providing early supporters with a significant opportunity to acquire SUKO.

Marketing: 10% (30,000,000 SUKO)

Allocated for promotional activities to enhance visibility and adoption of Suko Token.

Presale Bonus: 10% (30,000,000 SUKO)

Additional tokens distributed as bonuses to incentivize participation in the presale.

Dex and Cex Listings: 10% (29,000,000 SUKO)

Reserved for ensuring sufficient liquidity on decentralized and centralized exchanges, facilitating easy access to the token.

Key Features

No Buy/Sell Fees

Suko Token transactions are free from any buy or sell fees, encouraging active trading and usage without financial barriers.

No Team Tokens

To maintain trust and integrity, the Suko Token team has not reserved any tokens for themselves. This ensures that the team's interests are fully aligned with those of the community and investors.
